

Roderick Peacock took part in OAO Enel OGK-5 Board meeting for the first time

Moscow, 24 July 2012 – Roderick Peacock, former vice chairman at J.P. Morgan attended a Board meeting of OAO Enel OGK-5 Board of Directors for the first time and was elected to the Audit and Corporate Governance Committee.

Roderick Peacock headed global energy team and European M&A department at J.P. Morgan where he played key role in major oil-industry mergers, including Exxon-Mobil, BP-Amoco and Total-Petrofina.

Roderick Peacock was elected to the Board of Directors by the shareholders of OGK-5 at the annual general meeting on 20th of June.

Additional information:

Damir Musin:

+7 495 644 0010

Notes for editors:

Established in 2009, Xenon Capital Partners is an investment and advisory firm focused on the Russian energy sector. Xenon acts as the investment advisor to Rusenergo Fund, Russia's largest power fund, which is invested in equities of Russian electricity generation and distribution companies. Rusenergo Fund is by far the largest Russian power fund. In the corporate finance space Xenon has been acting as a financial advisor to leading energy companies in complex financial and strategic transactions. www.xenoncp.com.